This Christmas season, I plan to be intentional about the care of my weary soul and keeping my priorities in order.

If this is also a problem for you, I invite you to join me. From now through Christmas Day over on my Facebook page, I will be posting quick, easy ideas for keeping your eyes on Jesus during this Christmas season. Many of the suggestions will require only minutes a day.

This Christmas,

COME... BEHOLD, ADORE.

Coming in JANUARY --

30 Day Soul Nourishment Challenge

Mark your calendars. January 1, 2017, the Soul Nourishment Challenge will be back. Some of you may remember participating in this challenge in March of last year. The start of a New Year after a crazy, busy Christmas season seems the ideal time for us to revisit this soul nourishing time in God's Word.

Once again the Challenge will be offered via a closed Facebook group. You can request to join the Facebook Group at any time. The name of the group is Nourish Your Soul 30 Day Challenge.

New this time around is an email delivered version. If you desire to participate but prefer to have the Challenge delivered directly to your email inbox on a daily basis, you can sign up by clicking this link to subscribe.

One challenge - two ways to participate. The choice is yours.
