

36 Things To Do with Your Grandchildren in the Spring

- Go on a hike.
- Play in the rain.
- Pick flowers.
- Climb a tree.
- Play flashlight tag.
- Play a game of H-O-R-S-E.
- Make your own paper bag puppets.
- Plant a garden.
- Go garage sale-ing.
- Make a dandelion necklace.
- Have a Hula-Hoop contest.
- Ride bikes.
- Make a bird feeder.
- Have a staring contest.
- Attend an outdoor concert.
- Decorate Easter eggs.
- Explore the familiar with a magnifying glass.
- Enjoy a local Easter egg hunt.
- Catch butterflies.
- Create shadow puppets on a wall.
- Puddle jump.
- Celebrate "Backwards" Day!
- Watch a neighborhood baseball game.
- Create a family newspaper.
- Wash the car.
- Clean up at a local park or playground.
- Spring clean.
- Thumb wrestle.
- Practice random acts of kindness.
- Have an outdoor treasure hunt.
- Play catch or follow the leader.
- Go on an alphabet scavenger hunt.

Cloud gaze. What does that cloud look like to you?

Grandpa/Grandchild or Grandma/Grandchild date. Let your grandchild plan it.

Make boats from empty milk cartons. Then race them in a creek.

Go outside. Take your normal indoor toys and activities outdoors.

