

Ideas for Loving on Your Spouse

THROUGH THE CHRISTMAS SEASON

Offer Sincere Compliments:

(Speak them, text them, write them on notes)

- You are amazing in every way.
- I am grateful to have you as my teammate in this lifetime.
- Thanks for being a great husband.
- I'm so lucky you're my best friend.
- I love being with you!
- Thank you for being the mirror through which I see myself.
- You are a godly man.
- Being your wife is an honor.
- I am thankful for your humility.
- I learn something from you every day.
- You are the most thoughtful man I know.
- Thank you for being you.
- I appreciate you and who you are as a man of integrity.
- I respect you, and I admire you – as a person, as a man, as a dad, as a husband, as you are.
- I appreciate all that you do for me – for working hard, for giving your best, for providing as you do.
- You look hot today!
- You are my rock. I love you so much.
- You are my protector, and I am feeling blessed.
- I cannot imagine a better man than you!
- I scored big time when I married you.
- You are the man. And I am very happy to be the wife of “the man.”

- I am a better woman because you are my husband.
- It's fun to work/do life with you.
- You make me feel special.
- Here are 3 words I would use to describe you:
- I think you are the best, and I would choose you again!
- Thank you for loving me well. Here are 3 things I love about you:

Service Acts of Love:

- Buy him a special treat (book by a favorite author, CD, favorite snack, etc.)
- Leave a note under his pillow or somewhere you know he will find it.
- Clean his car.
- Get his morning coffee for him.
- Prepare his favorite meal for dinner.
- Serve him breakfast in bed.
- Send him a text.
- Pack his lunch for him.
- Put a love note in his lunch.
- Pray for him. Tell him you do.
- Do one of his chores.
- Play with his hair or massage his scalp.
- Ask him how you can serve him.
- Give him your undivided attention during dinner or a conversation – no cell phone or other interruptions.
- Run an errand for him.
- Give him a neck rub or a back massage.
- Write out 24 days of notes about what you love about him. Wrap them and give to him on Christmas morning.
- Write "I love you" in dry erase marker on his rearview mirror.
- Brag about him in public.

- Watch his favorite movie together.
- Pray aloud over him.
- Let him sleep in.
- Make his favorite snack or dessert.
- Put his towel and underwear in the dryer while he is in the shower. Have them ready for him when he gets out.
- Write out an encouraging Bible verse and put it where he will see it.
- Call him - just because.
- Watch a sports game with him.
- Encourage him to take a nap.
- Give him coupons to redeem. Create your own or download these FREE Coupons by The Dating Divas. (Give him the entire set or surprise him by hiding them one by one.)

Date Nights:

- Take a walk.
- Movie-thon. Curl up and enjoy an evening of your favorite movies.
- Go ice skating.
- Enjoy a romantic dinner - cooked by you or at his favorite restaurant.
- Go for a drive to look at Christmas lights. Add in hot chocolate or your favorite coffee for an added treat.
- Attend a concert.
- Enjoy a local Christmas walk in your town or nearby city.
- Participate in a service project together.
- Bake together.
- Browse a local book shop.
- Spend an evening together listening to Christmas music.

- Attend a community event or play.
- Watch your favorite Christmas movie with a big bowl of popcorn and a warm blanket.
- Shop for all the ingredients and bake a pizza together.
- Go on a scavenger hunt. Christmas Light Scavenger Hunt or Picture Scavenger Hunt
- Visit your local coffee shop. While there write out a list of things you dream of doing together in the future.
- Go on a Christmas picnic.
- Indulge in an evening of fancy chocolates.
- Bundle up and enjoy a December ice cream date.
- Play a board game.
- Go window shopping or shop for real.
- Read a book aloud together.
- Work a jigsaw puzzle.
- Sit around the fire pit and make s'mores.
- Create a bucket list for the two of you.
- Have a paper snowball fight.
- Visit an art museum.
- Let your spouse choose what the two of you do.
- Spend some time at the library.
- Play an interactive video game together.
- Try a new restaurant.
- Go on a road trip.
- Sign up for dance lessons.

ADDITIONAL IDEAS

---

---

---

---

